Individual Project Grants

1. House of Europe

House of Europe is a new EU-funded programme fostering professional and creative exchange between Ukrainians and their colleagues in EU*¹ countries. The programme focuses on different professional fields: culture and creative industries, education, health, social entrepreneurship, media, and youth.

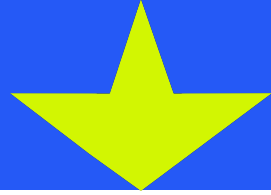

This encompasses 20+ separate programme lines enabling to go for professional events, internships, and networking in the EU*, or to enrol in study tours, residencies, trainings, and other forms of support. House of Europe funds cultural coproductions and cooperations between Ukrainian and EU* organisations, along with the development of cultural infrastructure and artistic concepts for youth in Ukraine. Finally, the programme offers various youth camps and an intra-Ukrainian university exchange.

2. Individual Project Grants

These grants support personal projects involving the EU*. You can get up to EUR 4,000 to launch the podcast, create a course, pay for an internship, or buy tickets to an international conference. Engaging ideas pushing you out of your comfort zone and on to professional development is what we are looking for.

The project should have an international dimension. If you're thinking of participating in a workshop, consider finding a fitting offer at a UK educational platform. If you're planning on launching a blog, think about interviewing EU professionals.

Grants support professionals in culture and creative industries, education, health, social entrepreneurship, media, and youth work.

3. What is an individual project?

- An initiative not related to the projects and everyday responsibilities at your workplace
- An initiative with a focus on your professional growth bringing you new experience, skills, and acquaintances
- An initiative involving experts or organisations from the EU*

4. What can be an individual project?

- Participation in fee-based skill development programmes offered by organisations from the EU*: online courses, workshops, masterclasses, internships, mentoring programmes, etc.
- Participation in fee-based events offered by organisations from the EU*: online conferences, networking events, forums, residencies, etc.
- Conduction of online surveys in the EU*
- Remote research in archives, libraries, museums, institutes, laboratories in the EU*
- Design of skill development events for Ukrainian peers featuring experts from the EU*: online workshops, master classes, lectures, podcasts, blogs, etc.
- Design of projects to present your ideas and expertise to peers from the EU*: online workshops, masterclasses, lectures, digital exhibitions, performances, podcasts, blogs, etc.
- Design of events for peers from the EU* and Ukraine: online round-table discussions, hackathons, networking events, forums, conferences, etc.
- Development of creative, research, and educational projects in collaboration with colleagues from the EU*
- Other projects that do not fall under these categories, but will be beneficial for you, your organisation, or professional community

5. What should one keep in mind?

- Due to the pandemic, you can only interact with the EU* remotely. Please opt for online events, as we will not be able to fund you travelling to the EU* to visit your peers or visa versa.
- Your project can consist of several activities as long as they are linked logically and form a cohesive unit. For example, you may participate in an online conference and afterwards hold a workshop to share new knowledge with peers.
- You cannot profit from the project. You also cannot contract the organisation you work at.

6. What is the duration of the project?

This grant is for short-duration projects: you will have up to five months to implement your idea and get done with reporting. You can start working on the project in May and should finish it by the end of September 2021.

Any changes must be negotiated in advance and may be granted only in exceptional cases.
